

An introduction to the curious nature of the herding instinct in humans.
How could we use this instinct to enhance good behaviour in our schools?

Managing the Herd

How the herding instinct underpins all behavioural decisions

Monday 5 February 2018

Twilight session only £65* per person

4.00pm – 6.00pm

The Training Centre, OLCHS, Fulwood, PRESTON

This course is aimed at primary and secondary teachers - year leaders, form tutors and assistant heads

Attendees will gain:

- An understanding of what the herding instinct is.
- An understanding of why any behaviour strategy needs to take into account and utilise the herding instinct.
- An opportunity to reflect, discuss and apply the principles to their current situation in school.

Trainer: Roy Matthews

Roy been a qualified teacher since 1995 and has a passion for education and working with young people. Over the years he has become more fascinated by behaviour management and the underlying psychology sociology that drives it. As a Learning Manager (Head of Year at Our Lady's Catholic High School) he plays a key part in the day to day implementation of behaviour strategies. Roy regularly supports colleagues to improve their own understanding and application of behaviour management as well as delivering a well-received unit on behaviour management

To book a place email training@olchs.lancs.sch.uk

*Cost - £55 per person for members of the Catholic Teaching Alliance.

Cost - £65 per person for non-alliance members.

Call Paula or Gill on 01772 326931